

DisciplineStudent Cell Phone Usage

Developments in cell phone technology in recent years have resulted in enhanced communication opportunities. However, the use of cell phones in schools poses increasing risks of school disruptions, bullying, criminal activity, and academic dishonesty. As a result, student cell phones, digital cameras and similar electronic devices may not be used or displayed during the school day, as well as, in dressing areas during extracurricular activities. Violation of this policy will be disciplined according to the guidance in the student handbook.

However, such electronic devices may be used in serious, unexpected and dangerous situations that require immediate action. Such emergency situations include but are not limited to:

1. An active fire
2. An active tornado or earthquake
3. An active shooter
4. An evacuation of school premises
5. Any other serious, unexpected and dangerous situations that require immediate action
6. Any situation identified in School Board Policy as an emergency

In addition, exceptions include situations when a student is directed to use such a device by a District employee or volunteer for instructional purposes. Exceptions will also be made when use of such electronic device is provided or required by:

1. The Individuals with Disabilities Education Act (IDEA)
2. Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA)
3. An individualized emergency health care plan as provided by Missouri statute
4. Rehabilitation Act of 1973 (Section 504)
5. Civil Rights Act of 1964 (Title VII)
6. Equal Educational Opportunities Act

2025, Copyright © 2025 Missouri Consultants for Education, LLC